DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-12 , drawn to a polymeric material that exhibits temperature sensitive permeability, classified in class 428 .
 - II. Claims 13-48, drawn to a package and a method of packaging , classified in class 426, subclass 106.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:
3. The Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case , the polymer material of invention I can be used in a materially different process of using (i.e. different than a method of packaging). For example the polymer material could be included on a hat to provide ventilation on hot summer days.
4. A telephone call was made to Glenn Ladwig on May 21, 2003 to request an oral election to a restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made. Examiner notes that there is no longer species requirement as discussed in the oral election.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
